Students' vacation service at Friedland. David gave preliminary and tentative details. Period in February. A fortnight service suggested. Living - somewhere at Friedland, on job. Three of us, with possibly six students. Work - many odd jobs require to be done. Feeding - our volunteers on same terms as students, camp rations supplemented by our own. On Ramsay's suggestion, a plan of the scheme is to be made beforehand, with due attention to the social side. The same volunteers should serve the whole period. Ian and Marian were names put forward. David is to see Frege, students' leader.

The possibility of Polish volunteers from our old D.P.camps was mentioned, and Willy and some of the Scouts are to be approached.

Matters arising

Students service at Friedland. It was agreed that a programme of work should be prepared for a scheme at the end of February in spite of the uncertainty of our own future plans. Followed a discussion of the whole proposal, with particular reference to the advisability of living in the camp, and the old argument of IVSP's Relief work.
