Dear John,

Frankfurt :

On the way back I had a most interesting contact in Frankfurt where Paul Krahe, from whom you received a letter, and to whom you replied, was able to show me some of the work that he and his friends are doing in their spare time. Considering the frightful difficulties under which he is working - it has to be a spare time occupation; they get no extra clothes or food - and it is really tough work, clearing bomb debris out of three schools, salvaging desks and making them into new ones - and most useful work at this time when both accommodation for schools and equipment is impossible to obtain. I was very impressed, and would like to help by sending some old clothes down to Frankfurt. But that is by the way.

Paul wants very urgently the names and addresses of young English people who would like to make pen-friends in Germany. Do you think that Albert could help ?

That's all for now,
Cheerio,

Basil Eastland
