Dear Derek,

.....
.....

Schemes :

Lots of clearing up to do; that explains my long sojourn in Berlin. I sent off about 2,000 marks in fares to volunteers today through the German Postal order system. Our financial position seems to be fairly healthy; I shall send an exact statement when I have got Eric's figures in for Meschede. I hope to get them on Thursday when I am calling in at Duisburg.

Hannover Conference:

With the very able help of Leslie of whom I can rely very extensively, plans for the conference are well in hand. I have enclosed a copy of the official notice that has been sent round to Mil Gov officials concerned and invitation in English to the 14 British (and Swiss!) invitees and invitation in German for the 60 German delegates. It was Alan Andrews who got all the duplicating done for me - and all the translating. He is a good and very reliable pal.

.....

All the best,

Basil
