- b) Allgemeiner Bericht, der für den jährlichen internationalen Bericht verwendet werden kann :
 In spite of the inclement weather which caused the 19 volunteers on this service to abandon the clearing of the children's hospital ground where a vegetable garden was being made, and to undertake fuel-cutting in the town-park, among the bomb-damaged trees, the job done was enthusiastically and efficiently carried out. Volunteers from seven different countries found themselves working side-by-side here, and a very fruitful spirit of comradeship, the spirit of SCI, drew everyone close together in the carrying through of an entirely successful, though regrettably short service.
